Mr. Martin's Vain Quest

(Winnipeg Free Press)

Shaking off the dust of his exile and Mr. Martin removed himself and his political ambitions to England where by a stroke of political fortune which he doubtless accepts as a proper tribute to his political and moral worth, he found himself within a year of his arrival a member of the Imperial House of Commons. He has been elected less than five weeks; and up to the present he has repudiated, as unworthy of his support, these Liberals:

1. J. A. Pease, formerly chief whip of the Liberal party, now President of the board of trade, in the re-organized Asquith government.
2. David Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer.
3. Herbert Asquith, Prime Minister of Great Britain, and by implication all of his colleagues.

They have been recalcitrant to their trust, they have betrayed the faith reposed in them by the people and Joe sorrowfully but firmly withdraws his confidence from them.

Mr. Martin's bad experience must tend to strengthen a wise which has been forced upon him, by the inexorable pressure of events—that of all the public men whom he has met there is but one man who is equal to integrity and courage is respected for Liberal leadership. No excess of modesty will restrain Mr. Martin from giving the name of this paragon, if application is made to him.

The Uppermost Topic

(Cochrane Advocate)

We spent Saturday in Calgary, and were surprised to find that the questions of taxation, the trouble at Edmonton and the unfinished city hall, had all been relegated to the background in favor of a general "kick" against the cutting out of the Sunday mail delivery. Everybody was talking about it. Mr. Martin had a good word for it or the Sabbatharians who brought it about.

MINISTRY SUSTAINED BY 23 TO 15

Mr. Marshall.

Hon. Duncan Marshall, the Minister of Agriculture, continued his address on the amendment to the resolution immediately after the Attorney-General had laid Mr. Hopkins' affidavit on the table. He stated that he would take up but little of the time of the House in discussing the question, as he thought that it had been sufficiently threshed out in the previous addresses. He wished to repeat, however, that the address of the junior member from Calgary had not been to the point at all.

"His speech was an attack upon legislation that this House had already passed," said Mr. Marshall. "The resolution now before the House has nothing to do with that. If those hon. members who are attacking last year's legislation so vigorously want to amend it in some way, the proper thing to do is to bring in an amending act. But the hon. member from Calgary thinks that it is a very bad thing to do, and so that is why it is not done, I suppose."

It was an easy matter, said Mr. Marshall, for a man with the legal training and keen mind of the junior member from Calgary to pick up each clause of the agreement; and hold it up to ridicule. On the other hand, it would be just as easy for another lawyer of the same calibre to do directly the opposite and so prove that agreement was a very good one.

"The most senseless inferences and suspicions," said he, "have been drawn from the letter written by the premier to Clarke offering to guarantee the bonds of the company. That he had done this is not at all extraordinary. It has always been the custom for governments to meet railway companies before bringing the matter before the house. If they did not do so, they would not know what they were asking the house to do. The Ottawa government has met McKenna and Mann time and again, in regard to the guaranteeing of bonds; and it is quite likely that they will meet them again sometime. It is necessary that the government should meet the railway company."

"Now this letter was the text upon which the hon. junior member from Calgary waded eloquent. He, however, only played upon the word 'promise' in the letter. He juggled with it, made it appear a dreadful word, and drew all kinds of inferences from it. But it is very noticeable that he did not dwell upon the words 'submit for the ratification of the legislature,' which are only a line or two further down. And these words prove the falsity of his statements. The letter itself denied all the allegations made. As was stated in the letter, the legislation was submitted to the House for ratification, and some of the hon. members who are now complaining were in this legislature when the bills were passed."

Mr. Marshall then referred to the fact that there were no letters on the Attorney-General's file bearing his signature, and pointed out the fact that a deputy is the general manager of a department and looks after all the details. The ex-Minister of Public Works would bear him out in that statement, and no doubt an examination of the files of the Public Works Department would show that Deputy Stocks had signed the letter in bulk of the correspondence.

The telegram from Minty to Woods containing the phrase "your people," had also come in for a good deal of talk. He couldn't see why such suspicion should surround this person Minty unless it was because he was a collector for the C.P.R. Land Company.

Mr. Bennett: "That is not true. The firm of Tupper, Minty and Galt are the solicitors. Minty has nothing whatever to do with the C.P.R."

"Your People"
Mr. Marshall: "At any rate they want to know what is meant by the phrase 'your people.' Why, it is so very simple that it hardly needs explanation. A man of average common sense understands that there are two parties to an agreement. And if Mr. Minty represented one party, what more natural than that he should refer to the other party as 'your people.' And that is just what he did. The phrase can have no other meaning."

The speaker then went on to show that at the $500,000 that the A. & G. W. had up, and which had been referred to as a paltry sum, was one-fortieth of their total capitalization, while G.T.P. Branch Lines Co. only had to put up one-two hundred fifty thousand dollars. "This company made an offer," said he, "and the amendment asks that the offer be let stand, and the government should accept this. The company has said: 'We will prove that we can and will get more money. We will store one million dollars with you in the bank and we will get more money to build the first fifty miles of our road.'"

"It has been charged that the company intend to build the best part of this road, take their guarantee and then skip out. But you will find that their act of incorporation compels them to put in operation every five miles of their road as soon as completed. If these people are prepared to put up the money, then I say the only wise and proper thing to do is to vote for this amendment, and I am prepared to vote for it."

Mr. Marshall then stated that he thought the Attorney-General had explained fully the guarantee and the clause covering the terminals. All the nonsense about the company's going to sell the terminals and skip out with money was but a figment of the imagination. Reference was also made to Mr. Bennett's quotation from the Monetary Times in which the prospectus of the company was set forth, and which said that the province owned nine million acres of school lands, but that these were set aside for a particular purpose and could not be counted as assets.

"Does the junior member from Calgary think that British capitalists are going to read a newspaper and see that there are seven millions of acres of school lands?" asked Mr. Marshall. "I have more respect for them than to attribute such things to them."

Mr. Marshall then compared the A. & G. W. with several other lines, greatly to the advantage of the former. Usually, he said, railways came back asking for more money. These people came back and offered to put up more cash. This kind of offer had never been made by a railway company before.

The sneer against the premier as minister of railways was ungenerous, he thought. The legislature knew that the premier had an expert engineer as adviser. Mr. Marshall said Mr. Bennett's insinuations against the Attorney-General were deplorable. Mr. Cross had denied them, and Mr. Bennett had accepted the denial. That ended the matter as far as the House was concerned. But the charges had been associated with Mr. Cross in the press and this sort of thing, even when unfounded, does harm.

In concluding, Mr. Marshall made a charge against Mr. Boyle. "If Mr. Boyle could have secured the solicitorship of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway," said he, "I venture to say we would not find him where he is now. We would find him discussing this contract. I venture to say that before five years are up every man supporting this resolution will have reason to feel proud of the development work done by this railway."

Mr. Boyle
Upon rising to close the debate, Mr. Boyle expressed his indignation at the closing words of the Minister of Agriculture, in which he sought to cast a slur upon his (Boyle's) personal integrity. "It ill befits the Minister of Agriculture to speak in that strain," said Mr. Boyle. "My integrity and my character are too well known to the people of this province to be injured in any way by any insinuations that the honorable member who has just sat down may cast upon them. I, sir, have lived in this province for a great many years. I have come up and down throughout the land. I am known to the people. Let them judge. I have never, like the Minister of Agriculture, been the paid organizer of a political party. He was brought into the province to stamp the country for various members. He was paid to do this. He is but a paid politician, and he dares impute dishonesty to my actions."

that I believe that if all those honorable members who really believe this transaction was not right, were to stand up and vote that way, this resolution of censure would be passed. In concluding the debate Mr. Boyle spoke as follows: "Although the majority of votes may be with the government, the government will have lost the confidence of the honorable members of this House."

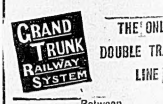

"Why? You ask. "Have they taken the members of this legislature into their confidence? No. Have they been prepared to defend this transaction? No. And, sir, how can they expect that the members of this legislature are going to vote to condone and whitewash this transaction, which they themselves are unable to defend?"

"I leave this matter with the honorable members of this House, and with the people of this country, believing that in bringing this matter to the attention of his House I have done only what is my public duty to the people who sent me here, and to the people of the province. I have done it without malice or ill-will toward any person, and I hope the result of what I have done will be for good and for the bettering of the administration of government in this country. It is for these reasons, Mr. Speaker, that I feel myself in duty bound to vote in censure of the government today."

Mr. O'Brien's speech on behalf of his resolution, the substance of which is given above, brought out some gems of speech which almost started the mace off its downy pillow. He misunderstood the expression "Lieutenant-Governor in Council," to mean the Lieutenant-Governor in person and consequently found occasion to refer to him on several occasions. He did so by calling him honor "that chad."

"The learned member for Rocky Mountain cannot call the Lieutenant-Governor 'chap' in this legislature," cried Mr. Bennett. "I had thought the ministers of the Crown would have protected the Lieutenant-Governor in this matter."

"We quite agree with the junior member for Calgary," replied Premier Rutherford.

HAROLD DEETON WAS MISSED

A Provincial Paper says that if Ottawa had Accepted Deet's Offer They Would Have Defeated Wanderers.

Harold Deeton, of Edmonton, whom the Herald stated in a recent issue was wanted by the Ottawa hockey club to finish the season in place of Bruce Stuart, who was hurt, is too high-priced. He wanted $200 an appearance for five games to be played, and Ottawa could not see its way clear to come through. Probably they wish they had after being trounced by the Wanderers last Saturday. It is felt that Deeton would have made some difference in the outcome of the game—Lethbridge Herald.

Y.M.C.A. Swimming Club.

The Swimming Club met last Tuesday night for the purpose of electing a captain. After the minutes of last meeting had been accepted, Mr. Harms, seconded by Mr. Tarbolton, proposed Mr. Ekman for captain, who was elected. Mr. B. Hager is to bring up a suggestion for a club emblem at next meeting. The club has among its members Mr. House, who broke two and four-length records. Swimming instruction is given to members. All interested are requested to leave their names at the office.

NEGROES FOR OUTLAW LEAGUE

President Lawson Signs the Cuban Giants for the Paterson, N. J. Team.

New York, March 4.—According to President Lawson of the United States League, the new Eastern out-law baseball organization, the entire team of the Cuban Giants has been signed to represent Lawson's club at Paterson, N. J., thus having a nine composed entirely of negroes. Lawson says the league has been incorporated under the laws of Delaware, the capital stock being fixed at $100,000.

Arrangements for the playing season have been practically completed, and the schedule will be adopted at a meeting next week.

ONCE HERO NOW FAILURE

Harry Covaletskis Spoiled the Chances of the Giants in '08 but was Off-Colour Last Season

A year ago last fall the one player who was the talk of the baseball world was one Harry Covaletskis, a coal miner from Pennsylvania. Practically unknown of, he joined the Philadelphia Nationals and at once jumped into fame by winning three games in six days from the New York Giants. The New Yorkers had eight games scheduled for the final week with the Phillies. If they won six of these contests, they would win the pennant which was hanging in the balance as the result of Mertle's failure to touch second base in a game with Chicago. Three times Manager Murray sent the young left-hander against the Giants and three times he won. The last time he faced the mighty Mathewson and won 3 to 2. In the ninth inning New York had a man on third with one out and yet failed to score.

With such a record, Manager Murray was sure he had the greatest left-hander of the age, but his dream was due to be shattered. When spring time came around Covaletskis delivered a no-hit game in practice, but after that he rarely pitched a creditable game, his record for the season being six victories and ten defeats. Now he is sent along with Corridon to Cincinnati in exchange for the veteran "spitter" Ewing and Brennan, a bush league recruit. He is another example of the old saying, "It's not what you were, it's what you are today." At that, Covaletskis is liable to come back next season and pitch great ball. He must have the stuff to do what he did against the Giants and very likely he hurt his pitching arm in the spring and never really regained its use.

Ketchell Loses His Belt.

San Francisco, March 3.—Stanley Ketchell, middleweight champion, has lost his $1200 diamond-studded belt, the insignia of his title. A local attorney, acting on instructions received yesterday from Ketchell, who is in Chicago, visited a prominent hotel where the prize-fighter was staying just previous to his fight with Johnson and instituted a search for the trophy. It could not be found.

DEACONS ARE UNDISPUTED CHAMPIONS OF THE CITY

Are Returned Winners in Game With the All-Stars Last Evening—Final Score was 4 to 2

GAME WAS MARKED BY CLOSE CHECKING

Ice was Rather Heavy and Players were Fagged Out at the End of Game—Was Cleanest Match of Season—All-Stars were Ahead at Half-Time by 2 to 1 but Couldn't get the Distance—Attendance was 400 and not an Enthusiastic Bunch at that—Deacons Eleventh Win of Season

In a game marked more by close checking than by any extreme brilliancy of play the Deacons won the undisputed championship of the city by defeating the All-Stars by 4 to 2. There was a crowd of 400 present and they were very sympathetic. At no occasion did the enthusiastic touch of last Tuesday's game with the High School.

Deaton and Boulton handled the game to the King's taste and it was the cleanest exhibition of the season. The penalties were few and for offence greater than tripping. Close checking was conspicuous by its absence. The All-Stars led at the interval by 2-1, but seemed to tire in the second half. Deaton, forward line played poorly at first half, with the exception Gannon, who worked his best. Dea was kept extremely busy. Waugh and didn't get much to get away.

Deacons wore their best in the second half, and it was the work of the indomitable Dea who was a sick man when he took to the ice, and a fall which did not help him up considerably, managed to win out by a comfortable margin. The work of both goalers was commendable. Dea made an acrobatic tight corner. Dea played his best game of the season. Dea played a fine game at all. Dea and Blayne were the best of the Stars' forwards. Dea was a whirlwind in the first half. However, Dea got the better of him in the second. Douglas spoiled the effects of his good hand capability to hog the end of the show, Burns was playing his usual hard game.

Dea and McGannon were the best line, and Dixon was the best referee—Harold Deeton. Judge of play—Bert Boulton.

Summary of Goals:

1.—All-Stars—Waugh ..... 3:02
2.—Deacons—McGannon ..... 7:00
3.—All-Stars—Douglas ..... 5:00
Second Half.
4.—Deacons—Dea ..... 4:00
5.—Deacons—Dea ..... 8:00
6.—Deacons—Dixon ..... 12:00
Penalties—Bishopric, 2; Dea, 2; Lines, 2, 2; McGannon, 2; Dixon, 3; Douglas, 2.

The Play.

Douglas rushes with Blayne and latter passes to Waugh, who scores for All-Stars in three minutes. Dea and Gannon make a pretty rush and pass Lines and Bishopric, but Wright comes out of goal and blocks shot. Dea and Mac take down and Wright again clears. Deacons force play. Banford and Dea shoot wide. After Waugh calls on May to get busy, Dea gets possession and after

BASKETBALL AT Y. M. C. A.

The Cubs Defeat the Stars, who Lead the League—Kids Win From the Cubs

Tuesday night two games were played in the Y.M.C.A. Basketball League. In the first game the Cubs handed the Stars, who lead the League, one awful defeat. The score when counted up was 52 to 15 in favor of the Cubs. The teams were: Cubs—Freeman, Chinneck, Tyler, Cranston and Nicholson.

Stars—Chown, Harlow, Duncan, Ashe and Frowde.

In the second game, which was very close and interesting, the Kids just managed to defeat the Comets by three points. The score was 37 to 34. The teams were:

Kids—Cullen, Parney, Dunham and Waugh.

Comets—Dingle, Bolander, Pife and Blayne.

Standing of League.

Team	Won.	Lost.
Stars	4	1
Kids	4	2
Cubs	3	4
Comets	1	5

There are two postponed games to be played off at the wind-up of the schedule, Stars vs. Kids and Stars vs. Comets.

a run crosses to McGannon, who ties the score.

Blayne and Douglas bring down, and Banford steals disc. Waugh gets possession and evades defence, but his shot misses. Douglas gets on the rebound from corner and nets a ringer. Score 2 to 1 in favor of All-Stars.

Lines brings down rink and the shot misses by a mile. Burns now appears on ice for the first time and Dixon fills the Deacons' forward line. Douglas sends in sizzler and May proves himself all to the advantage. Waugh gets a chance and again May thwarts his designs on goal. The checking is very close and neither forward line can get away. Bishopric and Dea go to the ice-box for a two-minute sentence. McGannon hikes down the pike, but Lines intercepts. Waugh gets another opportunity, but doesn't steady himself and shot is useless. Lines' two minutes for body-checking. Alونس takes down, Burns gets him before he reaches the danger zone. Half-time called with score 2-1 in favor of the conglomeration of nebular lights.

Second Half.

Mac gets a short sentence to start the play. Dea rushes and gets too far into the corner. Mac now on and signals his return by taking down and passing to Dea, who nets a crummy one, tying the score.

The game was fast, and in the excitement Lines gets two minutes. Gauvreau with an empty goal in front of him misses a counter. Deacons get for a silly slash. Blayne and Waugh get working and May gets in front of a corker from the latter.

Dea gets away and Bishopric steals puck and passes to Dixon, who rushes with Aldous. Dixon shoots high and puck bounces out in front where Dea is waiting with open arms to receive it. Result another goal, and Deacons ahead for the first time during the game.

Burns comes very close to counting, only Bill Banford's agile stick spoiling his chances. Blayne hurt and takes Dixon with him. All-Stars force play and Douglas by his selfishness in refusing to pass to Waugh misses a beautiful chance to tie score.

Bill brings down the "Arena" and forgets where the goal is located. Dixon and Blayne now on. Aldous and Gauvreau rush and Wright stops shot from latter. McGannon and Douglas catch Bert's eye and retire to the side in good order. Waugh and Burns go up and Bill steals and returns, but Bishopric interferes. McGannon and Bill again rush and Wright stops. Aldous rushes down side ice and Lines blocks shot. Dixon gets possession and scores the final goal. Score at finish of game 4 to 2 in favor of Deacons.

HAY MILLER WAS OFF COLOUR

The Ottawa Free Press says that the Renfrew Wing was Out-Played by Gardner

"There were really no stars on the Renfrew team. Frank Patrick played a very good defence game, and on some of his famous cyclonic rushes Taylor was especially brilliant, but they did not count for much. Taylor was repeatedly run out to the corners as soon as his speed was seen by either Johnston or Marshall. Few tried to use their bodies on him on account of his frightful speed. Taylor tried hard for his team and was cheered and cheered near the finish when he came down alone and made herculean efforts to break the duck. Lester Patrick played below form, but then he was closely covered by Glass and Russell who were near at hand to spoil one of his rushes. Both the Renfrew wings were outplayed by their covers. Young Hyland played rings around Rowe, while Gardner, who put up his best game of two seasons, had it all over Hay Miller. Gardner did a lot of running but somehow or other he was always on the spot. Hyland's work was magnificent in the first half. The pace probably accounted for him slowing up somewhat in the second. Riley Hearn was in elegant form as his clean sheet is evidence. He had some difficult ones to stop and cleared with lightning-like rapidity."

in the case, for instance, of a great artist, but his Lordship did not consider the services of a hockey player of so unique a nature as to justify an injunction.

Pitre appealed the case and won. The judgment of the Court of Appeal was rendered by Sir Louis Jetté and Mr. Justice Tremblay. The latter contended that the case of Pitre was not one which came within the limits justifying the taking out of an injunction.

Such a course might be resorted to in the case, for instance, of a great artist, but his Lordship did not consider the services of a hockey player of so unique a nature as to justify an injunction.

NO MORE HIDE- THE-BALL

Jake Beckley is in Low Spirits Now (The Old-Noah Trick has Been Abolished)

Kansas City, Mo., March 4.—Jake Beckley, who recently was released by Kansas City, was mightily worried when the baseball powers were talking of abolishing the "hide the ball" trick.

That has been Jake's chief stock in trade, along with base blows, for many years. "Pshaw," he said, when told that his pet play might be tabooed, "they won't do that, will they?" Jake has a deep hope that dating back into the dark ages of baseball and can show you just how many times he has hidden the pill on opponents each summer. He pulled off the trick seven times in the American Association last year.

Langham Wins Again.

Langham, March 3.—Maymont hockey team visited Langham the other day to play the return game. This is the team which managed to claim a draw with Langham on the latter's record trip west recently. Maymont had only six men with them and Langham consequently only put six to meet them. It was a fair walk over for Langham from start to finish and no fun from a spectator's point of view. The score was 8-0 in favor of Langham.

McVey Won at Paris.

Paris, March 4.—Sam McVey, the American heavyweight, knocked out Al. Kublak of Michigan in the tenth round of a scheduled 20-round fight at the Cirque De Paris the other night.

Pitching for Chicago in 1887, Geo. Van Halten gave 16 bases on balls. This is a record—something even Chesty Cox has been unable to equal.

The Royal Canadian Golf Association's Canadian championships will be held at Toronto instead of Ottawa about the end of June—next. The change was occasioned on account of the Ottawa's club house being burned down not long ago.

DIDIER PITRE LOSES APPEAL

Forgive us for Raking up this Dead Or? but he is now More Dead Than Ever

Montreal, Feb. 26.—Without a dissenting voice, the Court of Appeal unanimously reversed the decision of Mr. Justice Bruneau, granting an injunction against Didier Pitre, the cover-point. At the beginning of the season Pitre had signed with the Nationals. Subsequently he made an arrangement whereby he was to play with the Canadiens. The Nationals responded by serving Pitre with a notarial protest and by making an application in the Practice Court later for an injunction to restrain him from playing with any team except the one with which he had first contracted to play. Mr. Justice Bruneau decided for the petitioners, basing his judgment largely on American jurisprudence, no similar case ever having been heard before in the Canadian courts.

Pitre appealed the case and won. The judgment of the Court of Appeal was rendered by Sir Louis Jetté and Mr. Justice Tremblay. The latter contended that the case of Pitre was not one which came within the limits justifying the taking out of an injunction.

Such a course might be resorted to in the case, for instance, of a great artist, but his Lordship did not consider the services of a hockey player of so unique a nature as to justify an injunction.

A RIVAL FOR SHERIDAN

Keene Fitzpatrick says that Joe Horner will Beat the All-Round Champion of America

An Arbor, March 4.—"Give Joe Horner six weeks in which to train properly and I believe he could take the all-round championship of America from Sam Sheridan."

This is a statement made by Keene Fitzpatrick today. Horner is thinking seriously of entering the contests which decided the individual championship title of America in track and field events next July. His trip east and the men with whom he came in contact at the Boston Athletic Club meet are responsible for the desire on the part of the Grand Rapids boy to compete with Sheridan. And Keene Fitzpatrick's confidence in him will undoubtedly figure largely in Horner's decision.

The Michiganander made somewhat of a stir at old Boston town. He is a versatile athlete and seemed to be at his best when competing at the invitation meet. Eastern critics are already pointing him out as a strong contender for the title now held by Sheridan.

THE BETTING FAVORS OTTAWA

Odds are 5 to 3 Against Wanderers and Their Followers are Grabbing These—Ice is Very Soft but They Will Play if They Have to Swim

(From Our Own Correspondent) Ottawa, March 4.—Are Wanderers to win the Stanley Cup? is the paramount topic of conversation in Ottawa and Montreal just now.

A keen rivalry exists between the teams and when they clash on Saturday night it will be a battle for blood to the finish. The game will be postponed owing to the soft ice, but Ted Dey, manager of the Arena, says they will play if they have to swim.

The attendance will exceed and betting is 5 to 3 in favor of the Wanderers. They expect to have sent up several coins, picking up a last. Seats are tomorrow at $8 and

"FOR MEN WHO CARE TO DRESS WELL"

Every year an army of men is discovering that they can find thorough satisfaction in the Barry Shoe.

This is true for the following reasons:

First, because it is always thoroughly up-to-date in style.

Second, because it is well made by Union labor, of the finest materials ever put into a shoe.

Third, because it is designed for the perfect comfort of the foot.

About Town

There will be a band at Thistle Rink this evening.

Thomas A. Gaetz of Red Deer and George C. Clark of Wetaskiwin are registered at the Yale.

The Westminster Presbyterian Church skating party will be held at Horner's Rink this evening. There will be a band in attendance.

On February 1st a resolution was passed by the council that no persons but those connected with the fire department or waterworks department should draw water from city hydrants. The attention of Mr. McLean having been called to the fact that this rule is not being observed in all parts of the city, notice is now given that anyone being detected in an infringement of the regulations and drawing water from a hydrant will be prosecuted and punished severely.

The Edmonton correspondent of the Calgary News sends the following: "There is a strong feeling here that Calgary's interests demand that the city should have a strong representative in the government and that in a short time a man of the necessary calibre will be offered the portfolio of public works. This will be good news to the people of the southern constituencies as well as to the city, which recently, through no fault of its own, was deprived of cabinet representation."

Are Jewish Immigrants Jews?

Washington, March 4.—Before the Immigration Commission Judge Mack and Simon Wolf argued against the classification of Jewish immigrants as Jews. Both men asserted that the term Jew is religious, instead of racial, and that the nationality of a Jew is determined by the country of his origin. A Russian Jew, they said, for example, is a Russian, although the American immigration authorities classify him as a Jew. Mr. Wolf quoted Cyrus Adler to prove that Jews were a sect, not a race.

"In the Jewish cyclopedia, of which Cyrus Adler is one of the editors, appears the statement that 'Jews are a race,'" observed Senator Lodge, a member of the commission. Benjamin Disraeli was born a Jew, and changed his religion, but remained a Jew."

"If Disraeli had come to this country after he attained fame," interrupted Judge Mack, "he would have answered the question at the port with the words 'I am an Englishman.'"

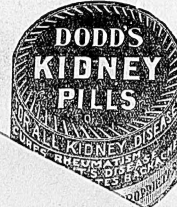

Senator Lodge contended that the term Jew is as much racial as that of Irish or of Pole. The immigration authorities submitted figures showing the entrance of Irishmen from France, Germany and Italy, immigrants being recorded as Irish in all cases, instead of French, German, and Italian.

"The claimed to be Irish, probably, because the were proud of it," said Mr. Wolf.

"Do not infer from that," interrupted Judge Mack, "that the Jew is not proud to be a Jew. He is."

Robert Livingstone, of Edmonton, chief mining inspector for the province of Alberta, has been selected as the successor of W. D. L. Hardie as superintendent of the Galt mines at Lethbridge, the latter having given up his position to accept that of general manager of the Diamond Coal Co. Mr. Livingstone was for several years underground boss of the Galt mines here and resigned to become superintendent of a new coal company at Edmonton. He afterwards was appointed mining inspector for the Lethbridge district, and was so successful in that work that the government made him chief mining inspector for the province.—Lethbridge Herald.

PERJURY CHARGES LAID

Losing Defendant in Supreme Court Case Says Plaintiff Committed Perjury

Hardly had Hjalmar Wahlund, a Swede miner living in Strathcona, had time to enjoy the fact that he had been granted a verdict of $574 by Chief Justice Sifton in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, before the defendant, Frank Smith, of Nainan, had him arrested on a charge of perjury and placed in custody.

The action in the Supreme Court was brought by Wahlund to recover some $800 which he claimed Smith owed him for work done. Smith had leased a coal mine near Nainan, and Wahlund had contracted with him to excavate coal at the rate of a dollar a ton. Smith, it was alleged, did not pay Wahlund for all the coal excavated, and the action resulted. On the strength of the evidence His Lordship decided that $574 was coming to Wahlund.

Smith on the other hand, claims that Wahlund perjured himself when he produced a certain notebook in which he said he had taken down the amount of coal excavated day by day. Smith claims the book produced in court yesterday was not the book Wahlund used at the mine, and advances the argument that this book is far newer and cleaner in appearance, and that it has far more figures in it than the other one had.

The case was heard before Magistrate Cowan this morning, and was continued this afternoon. Wahlund was arrested in the Grand Central Hotel last night, but was released later on $500 bail supplied by Napoleon Dumas, a farmer residing near Cardiff, and Barney Kutz of Nainan.

Increase in Liberal Majority.

London, March 4.—W. W. Benn (Radical), whose appointment to the secretaryship necessitated re-election, was returned in St. George's in the East by 1,597 over the late opponent, P. C. Simmons (U.), 1,599. A peculiarity is the slight change from the general election, Benn increasing his majority by only 73 and his total vote by 20, while the Unionist was 44 fewer.

ON STATESMANSHIP

Editor of the Capital:

Sir,—Public spirit is as much a Christian duty as private devotion. Petty politicians bent on their uppity personal plans, are a blight upon every nation. But statesmen, high-souled, broad-minded, self-forgetting are a nation's strength and safety. Somehow, the spirit of Jesus in the hearts of men has always made for largeness and liberty. Only that same spirit working through the friends of Christ can deliver a nation from the bane of small politics and raise up a generation of statesmen.

WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

"THE MAN FROM BRODNEYS"

For the benefit of those who did not read the first instalments of George Barr McCutcheon's great serial "The Man from Brodneys," now running in the Capital, the following summary is given:

Taswell Skaggs and Jack Wyckholme, after some domestic infelicity, each left England for the Far East. They met in Shanghai and joined in an enterprise to exploit the wealth of the island of Japan, which they bought from the natives for a song. It abounded in rubies and other precious stones and for thirty years they carried on operations there, growing very wealthy and keeping out of touch with friends at home. When they were old men they discovered that each had a grandchild. Skaggs' daughter had married an American, named Browne, and had a son. Wyckholme's daughter had a daughter, Agnes Ruthven by name. They made a will each leaving his share of the property to the survivor. Wyckholme died just a little while afterward. Skaggs fell into the crater of a volcano. At the opening of the story, Skaggs' second will, made after Wyckholme's death, is puzzling the lawyers.

The two grandchildren, must marry within a year to secure the property or the entire island reverts to the natives. Sir John Abercrombie of London, named as Wyckholme's executor and Alfred Bowen, of Boston, as Skaggs'. What complicates matters is that both children are already married. Wyckholme's daughter is Lady Deppingham. The question is, how, with the situation as it is, the vast estate is to be saved from the natives.

On the advice of their lawyers, both Browne and Lady Deppingham set out for the island. Browne takes his wife, to whom he protests that he would not give her up for all the world. Lord Deppingham is hard up. Both sides realize the advantage of working together against the natives. The third chapter introduces Hollingworth Chase, a young American of fair means, large prospects, but simple habits of life, who is representing the American government in the small American colony of Rapp-Thorberg. He has become much interested in the beautiful Princess Geneva, daughter of the Grand Duke. The fourth chapter finds him at a reception at the ducal palace.

He happens to see a man making himself obnoxious to the princess, throws him outside the garden gate, only to discover that he is the fiery-prince of Brebret, to whom the princess is engaged. She doesn't seem to mind his action, but his position becomes insecure.

The fifth and sixth chapters find the Deppingshams arrived at Japan, with Mr. Saunders, the lawyer's clerk. They find the natives very unfriendly. Accompanied by Mr. Bowles, British representative in the island, they repair to the chateau of the former proprietors.

The next morning the Brownes put in an appearance.

LOST HER PUP

And a Friend Found his Tag, Showing his Number, in Winesburg

Los Angeles, Cal., Mar. 4.—G. E. Sewright, of this city, ate a wiener, a wurst, commonly known as "hot dog," in a restaurant here, and at the same time solved the mystery of the disappearance of Miss Anna Bell's Scotch terrier.

In the wienersurst that Sewright was masticating with great pleasure was the tag of Miss Anna Bell's Scotch terrier.

Sewright was amazed when one of his molars crunched something metallic. He pulled the little piece of metal from his mouth and saw it was a dog's tag. Then he started to clean out the place. The police quelled the case.

Miss Bell said she lost her dog weeks ago. Sewright has forewarned wieners, and Miss Bell has cancelled the reward she offered for the recovery of her dog.

The police were very much pleased with the result of the fight. The accused were all fined and some were committed to jail.
